The Speaker (Hon. Susan Kihika): Sergeant-At-Arms I am directing under Standing Order 37 that the bell be rung for ten minutes.

Where is the Whip? Surely you people need to be telling me what is going on so we know how we are proceeding. Maybe after all there is no trip. Yeah! I cannot adjourn if there is no quorum. I will adjourn because of no quorum so I cannot go into letting you bring in a Motion to go to Kisumu. You will be staying right here.

(The bell was rung for ten minutes)

Minority Whip (Hon. Vitalis Okelo): Madam Speaker, there is quorum now.

The Speaker (Hon. Susan Kihika): So you are just sitting there? What is the purpose of extra allowances if all you do is sit like the rest of the Members?

COMMUNICATION FROM THE CHAIRPAYMENT OF WARD OFFICES MONEY AND SITTING ALLOWANCES

The Speaker (Hon. Susan Kihika): I was just going to bring to your attention that two months ward offices money, that is for February and March has been paid. The sitting allowances have been paid up to date so I wanted to make sure that you are aware of that or if that is not the case I need to be made aware.
