COMMUNICATION FROM THE CHAIR

PENDING STATEMENTS

The Temporary Speaker (Hon. Stephen Kiarie): If you would sit down Members so that we can proceed with the Business of the day.

Honourable Members, this is a reminder to the affected Chairpersons and Committees that the following Statements are still pending in this House and have not been received despite lapse of time that was given by the Speaker. So note that the deadline for presenting such Statements was supposed to be tomorrow 1st September 2016.

There was a Statement requested to the Chairperson Security and Governance, I think the Vice Chair is here; and this was requested by honourable Joseph Langat on cattle theft in Kapkures, Ngata areas and it is still pending. It is expected tomorrow.

Committee on Health services was also requested to provide a Statement by honourable Catherine Waweru on implementation status of the Motion passed urging the County government to purchase viral load machine. It was passed sometime back and it is still pending. It was due on 24th so it will now be due tomorrow. I hope the Chairperson Health is here.

Chairperson Environment and Natural Resources had a Statement requested by honourable Joseph Langat on status of Ingobor Water Project in Kapkures. It is expected tomorrow.

Statement to the Chairperson on Budget and Appropriations Committee requested by honourable Ngugi Muigai on County debt in the Year 2015/2016 requested on 5th May and it is still pending.

Chairperson Committee on Health services had a Statement sought by honourable Ngugi Muigai on massive transfer of nurses in Molo sub County hospital.

Chairperson Committee on Transport and Public Works you are supposed to provide a report to a Statement sought by honourable Rosemary Okemwa on flooding in Section 58 estate.

Chairperson Committee on Transport and Public Works again honourable Hazel had a Statement from Joseph Korir on installation of high mast lights at Barut ward in Fiscal Year 2013 to 2015.
